

You can teach a student a lesson for a day; but if you can teach him to learn by creating curiosity, he will continue the learning process as long as he lives.

~ Clay P. Bedford

The important thing is not so much that every child should be taught, as that every child should be given the wish to learn.

~John Lubbock

Education is what remains after one has forgotten what one has learned in school.

~Albert Einstein

Education is an admirable thing, but it is well to remember from time to time that nothing worth knowing can be taught.

~Oscar Wilde

Too often we give children answers to remember rather than problems to solve.

~Roger Lewin

The whole purpose of education is to turn mirrors into windows.

~Sydney J. Harris

The aim of education should be to teach us rather how to think, than what to think - rather to improve our minds, so as to enable us to think for ourselves, than to load the memory with thoughts of other men.

~Bill Beattie

It is important that students bring a certain ragamuffin, barefoot irreverence to their studies; they are not here to worship what is known, but to question it.

~ Jacob Bronowski

The school is the last expenditure upon which America should be willing to economize.

~ Franklin D. Roosevelt

*Children have to be educated, but they have also to be left to educate themselves.
~ Abbé Dimnet, Art of Thinking*

Education's purpose is to replace an empty mind with an open one.

~ Malcolm S. Forbes

Anyone who stops learning is old, whether at twenty or eighty.

~ Henry Ford
